

BLEAKLEY PLATT

Bleakley Platt & Schmidt LLP

Bleakley Platt & Schmidt, LLP was founded in 1937 by William F. Bleakley of Yonkers and Livingston Platt of Rye. "Judge" Bleakley served as a New York State Supreme Court Justice prior to running for Governor of New York in 1936. Livingston Platt, a successful attorney in private practice, also had deep roots in local, state and national politics. The tradition of government service has continued through the years as other alumni of Bleakley Platt have sat as Justices on the New York State Appellate Division and Supreme Court, one of whom also served as Surrogate for Westchester County. The tradition culminated in the late 1980's with the simultaneous appointments of two former partners as Chief Judges for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, respectively. Today, the Firm has grown to more than 40 professionals, serving our clients and the community through professionalism, public service and charitable works.
